It's time to begin thinking about how we can support our students in the coming year. I realize there is a large break between now and Fall, but this is the perfect time to begin thinking about and talking to potential tutors. We are not necessarily looking for the top student in your class (though they often work out to be great tutors). We are looking for students who exhibit behaviors that would lend to assisting others in learning course material: patience, understanding, a willingness to help others, content knowledge, etc. You all have recommended incredible students in the past and I am sure that trend will continue.

This year, we will be losing many students to graduation, a good problem to have. We do have some excellent tutors ready to fill their shoes, but we will always need more to train and gain experience.

Hiring at ALL Sites

Please recommend students from all sites. Our sites are in constant need of tutors. Because the sites have fewer tutors, losing one or two could mean a significant reduction or eradication of the tutoring program. So, please send your recommendations for KRV, Tehachapi, Bishop, and Mammoth.

Hiring All Subjects

Though math and English courses tend to be most widely tutored, we are always in need of tutors who can assist students in other courses. Click here to see how many students have received tutoring for each course during this academic year

Recommend Tutors

This year we have made the recommendation process easier by allowing UP TO TEN RECOMMENDATIONS ON ONE FORM.

Thank you for your continued support of the Learning Assistance Center and our students.

Subject: New Tutor Recommendations

It is time to begin thinking about current students you would like to work with your future students. We are always looking for helpful, stand-out students to work in the Learning Assistance Center (LAC). Once you have a student in mind, let them know! For students, hearing that they are being recommended by their professor is a HUGE factor in whether they decide to tutor or not.

Recommend a New Tutor

Recommend a Current Tutor for Another Course

In addition to recommending new tutors, you may also recommend a current tutor to assist students in another class by replying to this email. Here is a list of current tutors:

Angie Iraheta	Emon Nazari	Loraine Coggin
Alexxa Varela	Jonathan Blair	Mark Kuttor
Andrew Wood	Jenna Daugherty	Mary Maguina
Carol Blair	Jessica Hiatt	Olivia Ortiz
Christine Coronel	John Santiago	Ryan Richard
Christian Gomez	Jennifer Senesombath	Shaun Bott
Caitlin Peterson	Jeremy Walker
David Blair	Kelsey Hire

The LAC operates on the recommendations from faculty and I must say, we have a stellar group of tutors.

Thank you!
