1	I do not care about council as I only care on what I am teaching and praying that students would learn and get benefits from the class. Thank you.	5/8/2017 10:33 AM
2	This year the opportunities to attend, provide feedback and have a better understanding of what participatory governance is and how the decisions affect the college.	5/8/2017 10:15 AM
3	Better visibility for the committees would be helpful. Listing the committees and their members, as well as the meeting times/locations on the Cerro Coso website would be helpful. The minutes and agendas are already provided on the http://files.cerrocoso.edu/governance.html page, but having a clear link to that and to the individual committee pages would be helpful.	5/3/2017 5:26 PM
4	See College Council meeting notices sent to all recipients of the IWW campus. I hear reports on occasion at academic senate meetings.	5/3/2017 2:16 PM
5	As an adjunct, I neither feel appreciated or impacted by college policy. The college is mostly concerned that I conduct class and pays little attention to my work otherwise. Therefore, I focus on my students' progress and pay little attention to the college council.	5/3/2017 8:37 AM
6	I am new to Cerro Coso this semester and still learning about the College Council.	5/2/2017 8:39 PM
7	Personally, I think it would be great if College Council, Academic Senate, and CIC sent copies of their minutes to cc_all via email on a regular basis. It would eliminate the need to require reporting to constituents and would keep the college community better informed in general.	5/2/2017 11:33 AM
8	Having a college council rep report out only at Senate is not effective. I don't think it constitutes a clear and formal process for eliciting feedback from my stakeholder group. It is hit and miss. I have no idea if my comments are ever taken back to the council or discussed. Perhaps having an agenda item for college council "Input and feedback from reps" that is then shared out via newsletter?	5/2/2017 11:08 AM
9	Since the site redesign, I have been unable to find meeting minutes or agendas for any of the committees.	5/2/2017 9:28 AM
10	No thanks	5/2/2017 7:32 AM
11	The Academic Senate is broken. My guess (and it is only a guess) is that that is the only place to hear anything about what is going on at college council. I have no idea who my reps are anymore, nor do they contact me or anyone I know. An occasional email would be nice, like the report from the president's office.	5/1/2017 6:08 PM
12	It is too bad at this institution that faculty is bifurcated into teaching and non-teaching, and that decisions reflect the lower status of non-teaching faculty. An example is how raises were negotiated for faculty last spring, yet non-teaching faculty were excluded from those raises and therefore from the negotiations.	5/1/2017 5:45 PM
13	I know who one of my College Council reps is -- Mike Barrett. The other was Anna Sue. Neither reported or reports back in any systematic way. Barrett expects you to go to union meetings for the reports. I am not sure what is happening with Anna Sue or if anyone has replaced her on College Council.	5/1/2017 5:22 PM

College Council Constituent Survey Spring 2017

14	As each of the reporting entities at College Council are responsible for one or more of the items above, College Council brings everything together. CIC may do the line by line review of the Course Outline of record, but recommendations regarding new programs, how programs are doing (Program Review) and other curriculum concerns (SLO assessment, online effective contact, and more) are brought to "everyone's" attention at College Council. Again, not everyone sits on College Council but their representative do, and they report back.	5/1/2017 5:16 PM
15	I used to know where to find agendas, minutes, and meeting times, but with the new website, nothing is listed under CCCC committees and you need permission to view groups.	5/1/2017 4:52 PM
16	College Council is an essential part of the participatory governance structure.	5/1/2017 4:42 PM

The committee is working on filling their membership. b) The Safety & Security Committee has not yet met. The committee is working on filling their membership. Faculty and student representation is needed. Greta Robinson has been hired as the new Safety & Security Program Manager. c) The Technology Resource Team has not yet met. The committee is working on filling their membership now. d) The first meeting for the Student Success Support Programs is in two weeks. They are in the process of launching the inquiry group's strategies that were identified last year. The Cerro Coso Rocks event was an outcome of the inquiry groups and the event was a huge success.
6. Associated Committees a) Budget Development b) Institutional Effectiveness Committee (IEC)	Lisa Couch Corey Marvin	a) The first Budget Development Committee meeting will be on September 21. The budget for 2017-2018 will be going to the Board of Trustees during the September board meeting for approval. The 2017-2018 budget sheet was shared with the group. It was noted that we are currently balanced on the reserve at $457,498. Cerro Coso Community College is receiving an adjustment to our carryover balance from the 2015 allocation that was originally held in a district wide reserve. b) The Institutional Effectiveness Committee will meet next week. Cerro Coso recently hired two new employees, who are located at IWV, to handle our institutional research needs. One of these employees will also serve on IEC.

There was discussion and a motion for changes in the Senate structure to improve workability and shorten the time of the meetings. The revisions will also be necessary to file a 501c3 so that the Academic Senate can open up their own bank account. b) The Classified Senate just recently underwent a resurrection and restructuring. The first meeting will be next week. It was shared that the Senate will be working with CSEA to make sure there is a cohesive effort and to make sure both groups know what their role is. c) The Student Government Executive Board has already met a few times. Student Government just met recently. They are currently working on finding students to work with the many committees on campus. Bakersfield College Student Government and Cerro Coso's Student Government have been working well together. Constitution Day will be celebrated on September 21. Coffee and snacks will be shared so the event is being called Coffee and Constitution. d) Consultation Council is a district wide governing body that meets once a month with representatives from each college. The information shared at the Consultation Council meeting is then brought forward and shared with College Council. At the last meeting, the review and modification of board policies was still ongoing. The district budget was also presented by Chancellor Burke. The District Office is currently working on their program reviews. The announcement was made that they are moving forward with getting input for the program reviews. The district has scheduled a 10+1

A comparison of the results from the last two years was provided. It was felt that there has been a great effort to help everyone understand his or her role with participatory governance. It was recommended that we put out information on the electronic signage regarding participatory governance. The new Institutional Researcher, Ryan Khamkongsay, felt that next time we would do a more targeted survey or random push out for more accurate results. President Board will be working with Human Resources to inform new employees on participatory governance. President Board will be sending out information to all sites letting everyone know how they can access minutes, agendas, and supporting documents for College Council.
