

4B11 Controversial Issues in Curriculum

All criticisms of the curriculum, publications, or instructional materials authorized for use in the Kern Community College District which are directed to the attention of the Board of Trustees or the College administration must be presented in writing so that proper consideration and reply can be made. This policy also applies to textbooks, library books or materials, magazines, audio-visual aids, courses of study, or instructional guides.

4B11A Criticisms in writing must include specific reference to titles, authors, publishers, and page numbers of each individual item against which charges are made.

4B11B When such criticisms are referred to the Chancellor, the Board of Trustees shall be notified and a committee of College personnel may be assigned to study and report on the criticisms. Interested lay citizens may be consulted. Results of such a study shall then be reported to the Board of Trustees for further action.

4B11C The discussion of controversial issues in the classroom is essential to the development of informed and responsible citizens. Instructors are to be encouraged to provide opportunities for the development of clear thinking, balanced judgment, intelligent choices, and an understanding of the methods and devices of propaganda. In such activities, instructors shall emphasize loyalty to the United States, the importance of good citizenship, and vigilance in protecting our freedom and shall refrain from using classroom privileges to promote partisan politics, sectarian religious views, or selfish propaganda of any kind.
