

9C1 Official classified personnel files shall be retained in the District Office. No derogatory material which might adversely affect an employee's employment with the District will be placed in his/her official personnel file without his/her prior knowledge. (Revised June 16, 1994)