

11D1A The District will continuously review its policies, procedures, practices, pool and workforce statistics, and any other factor that might contribute to workforce imbalance or adversely impact employment opportunities of members of protected groups.