Welcome Back, Cerro Coso Students

First Week of Classes Do's and Don't's!

Community College Completion Corps

Phi Theta Kappa has joined the Completion Corps' efforts to help students commit to completing college degrees.

Don't Panic! How to Make Stress Your New Best Friend!

Most of us view stress as something to avoid because it makes us feel anxious, uncomfortable, and overwhelmed. But did you know that stress is also essential to our growth and development?

Cerro Coso SCORES with New Coach

Kris Dickson is the first to take charge of the new Lady Coyote's Soccer Team at Cerro Coso.

CDC Openings

CCCC Child Development Center currently has OPENINGS for children 18 months to the start of Kindergarten. The center is located on the Ridgecrest campus and is open Monday - Friday from 7:45 to 5 p.m. Staffed with child development professionals, each classroom has a credentialed teacher. For more information or an application contact the Cerro Coso Child Development Center at 760-384-6362.

College Bookstore Now Hiring

Attention Cerro Coso campus students! The Barnes and Noble College Store is NOW HIRING at multiple locations.

National Immunization Awareness Month

Vaccines are not just for children. Immunizations are needed throughout your adult life to help you stay healthy.
