04/03/2015	Associate in Arts in Art History for Transfer Degree	The Associate in Arts in Art History for Transfer Degree prepares students for transfer to complete work for a baccalaureate degree in Art History, Studio Arts, Fine Arts, Art History, Art Education or Art Therapy. This degree is designed for students interested in an introduction to the converging notions of contemporary and historical art production, analysis of ancient and modern artifacts, the exploration of local and global cultural contexts in which artifacts were created, and the methodologies of art history. Students will gain critical thinking skills and a foundational knowledge that will prepare them for transfer to four year institutions. While on-line and on-ground courses may be combined to obtain this degree, it can be obtained solely through our on-line offerings. To complete the degree, students must fulfill both of the following requirements: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Completion of 60 semester units that are eligible for transfer to the California State University, including both of the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. The Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) or the California State University General Education-Breadth Requirements. b. Minimum of 19 semester units in a major or area of emphasis, as determined by the Kern Community College 	We are proposing this degree in order to offer students more opportunities to transfer to art related programs within the CSU and UC systems. Currently, we do not have a local Art History degree.

2. Attainment of a minimum grade point average of 2.0.

Please note that our local Cerro Coso general education pattern MAY NOT be used to fulfill the requirements of this degree and that all required courses for the degree must be transferable to CSU.

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the program the student will be able to:

- Analyze and interpret the formal, technical, and expressive aspects of a work of art, whether as a historian, viewer, or creator.
- Discuss works of art representative of diverse cultures and regions within a historical and social context.
- Apply art historical terminology and methodology in analyzing and interpreting works of art.
- Demonstrate familiarity with a variety of art production processes.

Courses

Note: Some courses within the major may have a required prerequisite. If you feel you have equivalent knowledge and skills to those included in the prerequisite course through professional experience, licensure or certification, you have the opportunity to submit a Prerequisite Challenge to be reviewed by the faculty chair. For the Prerequisite Challenge to be considered you must submit documentation verification to substantiate the basis for the challenge. Please consult a counselor for more information regarding Prerequisite Challenge.
