- ii. March Speaker Event, Leslie Stien- Cerro Coso will have an invited speaker on March, 14th (Thursday). Leslie Stein has been invited to speak to Cerro Coso students and the outlining community. Stein describes herself as a “Life Enthusiast,” because if there is some kind of challenge most people don’t want to tackle...she’ll give it a try. An inspirational speaker and professional life coach, she has worked with such notable organizations as: Disney; Proctor & Gamble; The United Way; The U.S. Food and Drug Administration; American Speech-Language Hearing Association (ASHA); and countless others. Stien will share her views on a successful life and lecture about her book, Penny Perspectives: Let Go of Happily Ever After & Invest in Happily Ever Now. Please see advertisements for location and time.
- iii. March Video Game Tournament and Fundraiser- March movie night will be replaced with a video game fund raising tournament, which will be conducted in the Student Center at Cerro Coso. This event is open to all students and the outlining community. Please refer to advertisement for times and particulars.
- iv. Region IX Representative- Traian Morris will have the floor to discuss Region IX. Legislative positions and Student Senate (SSCC) representation Fee are on the agenda for discussion.
- v. Cerro Coso Open House- Cerro Coso College will have an Open House on April, 6th (Saturday). Potential students and the outlying community are invited to preview the campus. Clubs will be invited to participate in this event. The Student Government has purposed the idea of a barbeque and “meet and great” of student government for this event.
- vi. Affordable Food Assess for Students- The Elected-board would like to purpose a non-profit food pantry in the Student Activities Office. This purposed station would have available snacks at no profit to students. This food station would not compete with the Coyote Café, but would be an alternative for financially challenged students to purchase economical snacks. A purposed purchase of a refrigerator and club participation is desired.
