COYOTE NIGHT

Thank you for being here!

A young man with short, dark hair, wearing a dark blue t-shirt and a backpack, is seen from the side, looking out a large window. The window reflects the outdoors, showing a blue railing and green foliage. The text "Why college? Why Cerro Coso?" is overlaid in white on the right side of the image.

Why college? Why Cerro Coso?

WHY COLLEGE?

On an annual basis, bachelor's degree holders earn about $32,000 more than those with only a high school diploma.

The earnings gap between college graduates and those with less education continues to widen.

Today, Millennials with only a high school diploma earn only 62% of what the typical college graduate earns.

*Associate degree holders earn approximately $400,00 more in their adult working life than high school diploma holders.

Degrees & Certificates

Degrees

Associate Degrees for Transfer

Associate in Arts Degrees for Transfer (AA-T) and Associate in Science Degrees for Transfer (AS-T) provide you with a clear pathway to a baccalaureate degree. Earning an AA-T or AS-T guarantees acceptance to many four-year universities with junior standing and prepares you to complete a bachelor degree in a similar major at a CSU or a participating UC, HBCU or private university.

View Associate Degrees for Transfer

Associate in Arts Degrees

Associate in Arts degrees (AA) are general studies degrees that you can use to prepare for a major at a four-year university.

View Associate in Arts Degrees

Associate in Science Degrees

Associate in Science degrees (AS) can be used to obtain necessary skills to enter the workforce and start a career or they may be used to prepare for a major at a four-year university to further enhance your employability.

View Associate in Science Degrees

Certificates of Achievement

Certificates of Achievement prepare you to enter a specific field of endeavor, typically a career field with prospects of employment, or enhance your skills for advancement in your job.

Job Skills Certificates

Job Skills Certificates are short-term awards that give you the knowledge and training to enter a specialized career field in a short period of time.
