California Community Colleges

An Undocu-Transfer Student Experience

October 15,
2024

5:00PM - 7:00PM

MB 350 and Zoom

Araksya Nordikyan will be visiting Cerro Coso and sharing her experience as an immigrant student navigating the California Community Colleges system and transferring to the University of Southern California.

Refreshments will be provided. This event is open to everyone, and is in support of the California Community Colleges Undocumented Student Action Week 2024.

Araksya Nordikyan is a first-generation immigrant who is motivated by her national and family history, her love for learning and her desire to become an asset to her community. She graduated from the University of Southern California in 2020, earning her Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy, Politics and Law and her Master of Public Administration.

With her diverse background, academic discipline, and political engagement, Araksya hopes to continue her work on social issues where she feels she can have the most impact in shaping a more inclusive world.
