Hello folks,

This year Cerro Coso has sponsored the Eastern Sierra Pride Festival taking place on June 1 and June 2, 2024, at the Tri-County Fairgrounds. More info on Pride:

<https://easternsierrapride.org/pride2024/>

Our college will have a booth at this festival, and we are seeking a few volunteers for the weekend. Volunteers will be provided a free ticket to enjoy the festival.

Please fill out this form if you are interested in supporting:

Good morning management,

I want to invite you all to our NASSSP meet and greet, hosted at the Bishop Ed Center. Our NASSSP program would like to offer you, and/or a representative(s) of your department, the opportunity to attend by covering travel expenses to attend this event (mileage, car rental etc., following official college policy on intra-campus travel). Additionally, if you would like to share information on your department, please let Leticia and myself know so we can add you to the agenda.

Let us know if you have any questions, we thank you for your support.

Dear campus community,

This October 16-20, 2023 marks the 7th annual California Community Colleges' Undocumented Student Action Week and Cerro Coso Community College is proud to celebrate and recognize this week on our campus.

Cerro Coso is committed to equitable access to higher education for all students regardless of citizenship status. The California Community Colleges enroll the largest population of undocumented students and Cerro Coso is proud to serve as an advocate for our undocumented students and community members.

Please join us at the following events listed below sponsored by Cerro Coso Community College and the California Community Colleges' Chancellor's Office:

IWV/Ridgecrest Campus Events

Paint Night

Wednesday October 18, 2023 | 5:30pm-8pm | Learning Resource Center

Show your support for our undocumented students by joining us for our first ever Paint Night! Attendees will be guided in painting a monarch butterfly, an important and commonly used symbol of the immigration rights movement. See flyer below for more details. Sign up here:
