Dear Campus Community,

The Cerro Coso Umoja Program Presents Guest Speaker Jehrid Mosley, Attorney & Author of *The People That Were Never There

Jehrid Mosley is an accomplished African American author and attorney whose life story is a powerful testament to resilience, adaptability, and triumph over adversity. His expertise in the legal profession, particularly in advocating for social justice, equality, and recovering for his clients has earned him recognition and respect within the legal community. Jehrid's passion for storytelling and advocacy extends beyond the courtroom, being a published author with books that draw from his own experiences and offer insight into the challenges faced by underrepresented communities. Jehrid Mosley's journey from a young man arriving on American shores to his successful career as an attorney, author, and inspirational speaker has been nothing short of extraordinary.
